"Federico has a superb understanding of Wordpress, and has more than met my expectations with launching a Wordpress site. He is quick, professional, and trustworthy. I will definitely be working with him on more projects in the future."

— Matt Silverman, was Federico's client

"We call him Fed at work and we find him a very active and highly motivated and also motivating teammate on the project we jointly handled then. He's one of the few guys I've known in my field to have a keen skill not only in PHP, but also in Javascript, Java, not to mention he also knows how to speak and read Japanese. I'd highly recommend Fed as an asset for any company who'd render his services and skills."

— Tito Mari Francis Escano, PHP Developer, Resco Systems Philippines, worked directly with Federico at Resco Systems, Philippines

"I hired Federico to help me convert a static site to a php wordpress site. He did a great job copying the site and adding some of his own creative flair, and took the time to get the functionality of the site exactly where it needed to be. The changes needed along the way were done quickly and he took the time to explain to me how he was fixing things (a big plus). I would definitely recommend Federico and plan on using him again on my next project."

— Eric Evans, was Federico's client

"I hired Federico Garcia when he bid on my project. He had the project done in hours when other people told me days. I plan to use him more in the future and I have suggested him to people who would require his services. Jason Nulph"

— Jason Nulph, was Federico's client

"Fedmich was very helpful and good at creating web based forms in php using mysql."

— Salim Naran, was Federico's client

"I highly recommend Federico for your IT needs. Not only does he show detailed knowledge of the subject matter at hand, he offers excellent suggestions on how to streamline workflow. I fully expect to continue contracting Federico for additional projects in the near future as positive results are assured."

— Michael White, was Federico's client

"Federico is a good coder, professional freelancer experienced with PHP, MySQL, Wordpress, and Web 2.0 technologies. Responsible and positive thinking programmer who will be useful for any project related to his skills."

— Slava Smolin, ExtJS developer, Enikos Pty Ltd (Enikos.com), worked directly with Federico at Enikos - Video Advertising Solutions, Australia

"Federico is absolutely amazing at what he does with website modeling. He obtains a vast skill-set which he applies to his work each and every time a new task is established. He is an expert with WordPress and is great to talk to about anything, whether it is in regards to a specific task or even general issues. Federico is very friendly and this makes it much easier to communicate with him."

He genuinely cares about the work he creates for his clients. I would recommend his services to anyone regarding anything!"

— Jesse Klein, was Federico's client

"Federico obtains a vast skill-set that he applies to every task. He works rather quickly and delivers nothing but superb results!"

— Jesse Klein, was Federico's client

"Federico (nickname Fedmich) is a great freelance web developer. He has both normal web development skills as well as application software programming skills. He is highly flexible and has multiple technical skill sets and the ability to look at other applications and quickly replicate their functionality. His written english is very good, I dont have a lot of experience with him face to face (most of our work together has been via chat or email) I have used him for a number of projects including a full time gig that went for 7 months and would recommend him for outsourcing your development work. He got on very well with our development team which included people from Australia, Russia, Pakistan and India and productive and worked well across multiple cultures and time zones. Due to completion of our development project we are no longer using him however I will continue to use him as opportunities arrise. Please feel free to contact me directly if you want more detailed information."

— Mike Nicholls, was Federico's client

"I had the Federico work on several projects for my company and was always thrilled with his work. He has a very high work ethic and always underpromised and overdelivered. I would be happy to speak with anyone who is interested in using him as a developer/coder. Samuel Newman UsedCarLease.com"

— Samuel Newman, was Federico's client

"We used to call him Fed, Its simple, same as he is a simple man,with a very optimistic mind. He is one of a kind in terms of programming. he has always have a good credits in all aspects of websetting. Or in a simple words, He is a Computer Wizzard. I can commend on his works and modules. Fed keep up your good works. Best Deal for you to come"

— Odette Apolinario, Operations Manager, DAKKI, worked directly with Federico at Dakki Classics Concept

"Mr. Federico as programmer/Analyst & Web Designer at Dakki Classics Concepts, Inc. is known for his excellent professional relationship with other employees. He work hard, full of ideas and love to share what he has... i love this young fellow!!!!"

— Joselito Ramos, Manager, Jumo Documentation Services, worked with Federico at Dakki Classics Concept

"Federico is an extremely talented developer. He is young and full of vigor. He never stops until a certain task is done and fully working. He delivers the project on time and on budget. He is also flexible to small revisions and doesn't charge you much but most of the time it's free! I worked with Federico on several IT projects and among those is our project with a Japanese clientele. I really appreciate his patience in dealing with our Japanese counter parts because it took him around 2 to 3 hours a day of skype phone call to get the instructions from Japan. He works fast that even though he already spent 3 hours of skype call from Japan he can still finish an 8 hour worth of output. Federico is also resourcefull and very skilled in his area. One of the many qualities that I liked in Federico is his honesty and broad knowledge in programming. If he says that he can do it he really means that he can do it. He doesn't pretend."

— Frederic Tubale, Software Engineer/Information Architect, Resco Systems Philippines, worked directly with Federico at Freelance Computer Services

"Federico has been a all around terrific provider. He is a proven leader with a top of the line track record. All of his work has been completed ahead of schedule and budgeted very well. He has a diverse knowledge of programming and design. Please feel free to email me with any questions."
